TRANSPORT SERVICES THAT WELCOME YOU AND YOUR BIKE!

Traveling along the route by train

Several stations near the route allow you to access the trail, shorten a stage, or return to the starting point.

The main stations on the itinerary are:

Caen, Flers, Laval (TGV), Angers (TGV), Saumur (TGV), Montreuil Bellay, Thouars, Niort (TGV), La Rochelle (TGV)

Interactive maps of the stages help you easily locate the stations along the route. https://www.lavelofrancette.com/itineraire

You can also check the TER websites for the different regions crossed:

- Ter Pays de la Loire
- Ter Basse Normandie
- Ter Nouvelle Aquitaine

Boarding your bike in a train

The TER trains do not require a reservation.

Transporting your bike is free, subject to availability. Be sure to check if the bike icon appears on your reservation to ensure you can bring your bike onboard.

Please note that the number of spots is limited, and capacity restrictions may prevent you from boarding with your bike. Arrive early and, if possible, travel outside of peak hours.

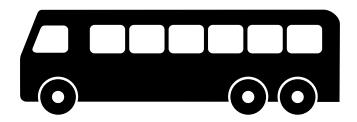

INTERCITÉS trains sometimes require a reservation. If so, it must be made at the same time as purchasing your ticket.

Be aware that capacity restrictions may also prevent you from bringing your bike onboard. Whenever possible, it's best to travel outside of peak hours.

TGV trains require a reservation.

The fee for transporting your bike is €10. You must reserve your bike on the SNCF website, at www.capitainetrain.com, or at a train station ticket office.

For more information, you can visit the SNCF website dedicated to bike transport in trains.

Boarding your bike on a bus

Other options include taking regional buses from the stations to reach certain tourist sites.

All information is available on the interactive maps of the stages: https://www.lavelofrancette.com/itineraire
